The Senate has for many years been known as the "Millionaires' Club." The last election has almost robbed it of that title, for after the 4th of next March, while the will be still many senators whose door the wolf will never threaten, its richest millionaires will have departed. At one fell swoop the Senate's halo of plutocracy has been jarred off. Senators Aldrich, of Rhode Island; Hale, of Maine; Depew, of New York; Kean, of New Jersey, and Scott, of west Virginia, will all leave the Senate are not the only ones whose faces will be missed. Death and elections have played sad havoc in the Senate, and it is claimed by democratic majority of 62, has, to

THE THRONE AND ALTAR.

The Ossesvatore Romano publishes comments, evidently inspired by the vatican, on the discussion Saturday in the German Reichstag of the speech made by Emperor William at Koenigsberg on August 26, pointing out that the debate furnished proof of the irrefutable truth contained in the emperor's speeches both at Koenigsberg and Beuron that the throne and altar cannot be divided in Germany, religion being necessary in the struggle against error in modern times. In addressing the abbot and a number of Roman Catholic dignitaries in the Benedictine monastery at Beuron, the emperor said:

"The governments of Christian princes can only be carried on according to the will of the Lord. The altar an throne are closely united and must not be separated."

The vatican official organ, in the course of its comment, says: The two finest speeches of the German monarch were noble, just and constitutionally correct. While irreligion and demagogy imperil the principles of authority and order, it is a relief to hear certain truths folly vineitated by the authori-
